

Celebrating our Eighth Year

The Central Virginia Chapter of the American Association of Legal Nurse Consultants was founded in 2001. We provide a resource for information to our members on matters relating to legal aspects of nursing and health care law.

Benefits of Membership

- Networking opportunities with other LNCs in various areas of practice.
- Educational opportunities at monthly meetings and annual conference
- Free admission to all chapter meetings
- Annual chapter membership directory for referrals and networking

Who can Join?

Membership in CVC-AALNC is open to licensed registered nurses in any state currently practicing as a legal nurse consultant. Membership in AALNC at the national level is a requirement for local membership.

Presents

Beyond the Chronology: Broadening the Scope of LNC Practice

Saturday, October 17, 2009

T.C. Williams School of Law
University of Richmond
Richmond, Virginia

6 hours of continuing nursing education
have been applied for through the VNA

Please join us for a unique educational experience which features three nationally known speakers.

You will be guided through the fundamentals of a personal injury case, learning the various roles of a legal nurse consultant working on an actual case. Morning sessions immerse you in the various roles of a LNC in the Independent Medical Evaluation and in Life Care Planning.

The day continues with information on Medicare Set Asides and the role of the Mediator in personal injury cases and finishes with a session about how LNCs can use social networking to expand their marketing efforts.

Who Should Attend?

The Central Virginia Chapter of the American Association of Legal Nurse Consultants has specially designed this program for attorneys, legal nurse consultants, clinical nurses, paralegals and legal assistants.

Seminar Objectives:

1. Discuss the contributions of the LNC in personal injury cases.
2. Identify the roles of the LNC in IMEs.
3. Gain an understanding of the functions of Life Care Planning, Medicare Set Asides and Mediation in personal injury litigation.
4. Identify contemporary methods of marketing the LNC practice using social media such as Facebook and Twitter
